1. A representative of an Albanian resistance group [] went to Shkoder in mid-April 1951 [] to contact members of the "Resistance Front" advises that the urgent invitation from the "Front" was exaggerated and that he merely met with a member of the dissolved Demo-Christian Party who had never heard of the "Resistance Front."
2. The [] representative hopes to meet an officer in Kukes whom he believes to have important information from the purportedly mysterious "Front" organization.
3. [] small resistance groups in Albania once were numerous, but are now dissolved, with most of the members either in prison or in Yugoslavia. Those that are left, [] though full of good will, live on nostalgia, and therefore cannot be depended upon.
